On this day in 1945, at 8:16 AM Japanese time, an American bomber dropped the world's first atom bomb, over the city of Hiroshima. Three days later, the U.S. dropped a second bomb on the city of Nagasaki. The two bombs together killed somewhere between 150,000 and 230,000.

David Steinberg, who was nominated for the 2018 Nobel Peace Prize, will be reading poetry. We will also have music from the Solidarity Singers.

We will be hearing from Alex Wellerstein, a historian of nuclear weapons from Stevens Institute of Technology. His general research interests are in the history of nuclear technology, government secrecy, and Cold War science.

PEACE VOTER 2018

On Tuesday, March 13th, there was a stunning upset in a Congressional race near Pittsburgh. A district that Donald Trump won by 20% flipped to a Democrat! Citizen activism in electoral work could create a wave of change in the US Congress!

Now that the primaries in NJ and PA are over, we are inviting the two major candidates from targeted districts for briefings. At the 90-minute briefings, a delegation of experts and organizational leaders will discuss the basics of Diplomacy, Not War with North Korea & Iran, nuclear modernization, gun violence prevention, a peace economy, and the crises in Yemen and Syria.

These are the districts that CFPA is targeting for the 2018 Midterm Elections. If you can reinforce our contact with any candidate below, contact cfpa@peacecoalition.org.

On June 13, 2018, Gov. Phil Murphy signed a package of gun violence prevention bills into law. This is the culmination of an effort spearheaded by Ceasefire NJ since last fall! See left: image of Ceasefire NJ representatives with Governor Murphy at the bill signing.

To the right: Star Ledger coverage of Board Member Kip Cherry and Ceasefire NJ's Legislative Director Dolores Phillips testifying at one of the many hearings these bills went through. Starting in the fall of 2017, Ceasefire NJ met with Senate and Assembly leaders, testified at hearings, participated in press conferences and promotional events, and organized and assisted with several March for Our Lives events.
